The above artist(s) are independent contractors and assume all responsibility for this contract including (but not limited to) tax, social security liability and workers compensation. In event of cancellation by client, the deposit will not be refunded. It should be noted that in the case of a personal, family or other emergency, the above artist will notify the client and provide a replacement entertainer to perform at the event if time allows, (to date this has never happened, but we feel it's only fair to spell out the possibility and procedure if it did). If any litigation ensues as a result of this contract, the client agrees not to hold Showtime DJs Productions, L.L.C., or the independent contractor responsible for any amount exceeding the actual dollar amount of this contract. Except as stated above, the client waves and releases any claims it may have against Showtime DJs Productions, L.L.C.. Or the above mentioned artist and agrees to indemnify Showtime DJs Productions L.L.C.. Against any third party claims of any nature whatsoever. This contract contains the entire agreement of the parties. If the above meets with your approval, sign and return immediately with any additional information you deem necessary. The above artist has authorized Showtime DJs Productions L.L.C.. to sign on their behalf for any contractual agreement necessary for the performance of this engagement as outlined herein.

Thank You,
